UF Health Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine Institute Physicians Dr. Chance Gray [5] and Dr. Hernan Prieto [6] discuss a newly implemented set of patient centered protocols that can enable certain joint replacement patients to return home the same day of their surgery. This protocol comes as part of a focus on quality and outcomes for patients at UF Health by emphasizing early recovery and improved pain control.

This video news article was featured on the WCJB-TV20 [7] website:

- Medical Spotlight: Returning patients to their homes post-operation [8]

Links: